Write at least 250 words on one of the following:

1. You have just received a letter from a friend who recently moved to a different city or country. In this letter your friend describes his/her experience with homesickness and adjusting to the new culture. Write a letter back to your friend, advising on how to cope with these problems.

 2. Last week you graduated from high school. Write a diary entry reflecting on the new stage you have reached in your life. Be sure to discuss your feelings, activities and future plans.

 3. You are participating in a school debate on the motion: Learning should be fun. Write the text of your speech either agreeing or disagreeing with this motion.

 4. Your class has an idea for an after-school activity not yet offered at your school. To get approval for this new activity, write a letter to the principal describing the activity and explaining its importance and how students will benefit from it.
